EVENT DESCRIPTION

The Foundation for Subjective Experience and Research S.E.R.

with its co-sponsors, focusses on reconciliation and peace education, empathetic perception and health issues, violence prevention, a call for sharing and gender-responsive financing as indispensable pre-conditions for empowerment of women and girls and well-being, according to Beijing+30 subjects.

A call for action will come along with presentations and interactive parts.

Nicoline Wazeh Nwenushi Tumasang

a freelance human right defender, peace educator and Gender and Development Expert presents Gender- Responsive Financing, the 13th critical area for BPfA.

Afrokids International e.V., Topic: Empowerment for Women from the Global South: Health, Poverty Reduction, and fighting FGM/C

Professionals collaborate to create strategies supporting women from the Global South in the North. Focus is overcoming trauma, poverty, violence, FGM/C, racism, promoting psychosocial health, community-based care, self-efficacy to break intergenerational cycles.

ERGOSOMA® International

The Suitcase-Empathy-Program comes with the most effective and innovative tools for empathy and perception exercises. It enables professionals as educators, NGO representatives, socialworkers, healthcaregivers, researchers to follow high values whilst taking action.

The "Suitcases" of ERGOSOMA® International are an advanced training free of charge to be implemented worldwide. The organizations taking part are invited to enrich the "Suitcase" program, a 3-week program of 20 minutes daily practice, with their local reconciliation and peace practices.

SPEAKERS

Josefine Brecht is an expert on education. She worked as a fulltime secondary school teacher for more than 30 years.

She has committed herself for reconciliation and peace for more than 20 years on a voluntary basis. With that she represents the Foundation for Subjective Experience and Research S.E.R., which works for Reconciliation and Peace, as CAO and Head of NGO Affairs and for five years as president. She started as co-founder of the Foundation in 1996 and since then has been actively engaged in the foundation's work and goals, among others as member of DPI NGO planning committees, like 61st DPI/NGO Conference, commemorating the 60th Anniversary of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights in Paris, bringing the 64th DPI NGO conference to Bonn, Germany in 2011, as organizer of panel speakers, side events like workshops, exhibits, as speaker and/ or participant of many UN NGO and UN conferences.
